With the exception of creditor(s) listed in paragraph 4(d), it's successors and/or assigns, upon granting of a discharge in this case, all secured creditors that were paid through the plan shall promptly release all collateral held as security on loans, and shall promptly release and/or satisfy all security deeds, security agreements, UCC filing, judgment liens, titles and/or any other lien claim of any kind against property of the debtor(s). This paragraph shall in no way apply to mortgages and/or other secured debts that are not paid through the Chapter 13 plan. The Debtor proposes to surrender collateral in section 9 of the Chapter 13 plan. Surrender of collateral under this provision does not affect the requirement for any secured creditor to file a timely proof of claim which proof of claim shall include evidence of the timely perfection of the creditor's security interest. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(d), 3002(a). In the event the creditor fails to file a proof of claim required by the Bankruptcy Rules, the claim will be disallowed, and will receive no distribution under the confirmed plan. The Trustee reserves any rights she may have to oppose stay relief and object to the creditor's disposition of the surrendered property. Any non-exempt equity from the sale of surrendered property shall be paid to the Trustee as an additional dividend to unsecured creditors, unless appropriately exempted by the Debtor.

By signing below, I certify the foregoing plan contains no nonstandard provisions other than those set out in paragraph 15.
